

A Parent's Letter to My Children in School

JEFF THREDGOLD

A PARENT'S LETTER TO MY CHILDREN IN SCHOOL

Dear

A PARENT'S LETTER TO MY CHILDREN IN SCHOOL

With your focus on education, I often find myself thinking about how much the world has changed since I was in your shoes

The world is now a much “smaller” place—people of all cultures can communicate and travel with ease

A PARENT'S LETTER TO MY CHILDREN IN SCHOOL

You face great challenges today...just as I did...just as my parents before me

A PARENT'S LETTER TO MY CHILDREN IN SCHOOL

These words of advice
might be helpful:

Recognize that the only limits you face are those you set for yourself

A PARENT'S LETTER TO MY CHILDREN IN SCHOOL

Recognize that YOU are responsible for your successes and failures

A PARENT'S LETTER TO MY CHILDREN IN SCHOOL

Strive for excellence...
not perfection

Look for ways to succeed, rather than excuses to fail

Develop other information sources
to verify, or challenge, what you are being taught...

A PARENT'S LETTER TO MY CHILDREN IN SCHOOL

“History” is routinely twisted or rewritten to support a particular point of view...

A PARENT'S LETTER TO MY CHILDREN IN SCHOOL

Get other ideas

Participate—but don't be a pain!

A PARENT'S LETTER TO MY CHILDREN IN SCHOOL

Many of these suggestions will be useful throughout your life—learn them well

A PARENT'S LETTER TO MY CHILDREN IN SCHOOL

I wish you the greatest success in your efforts and hope you find school both rewarding
and enjoyable

A PARENT'S LETTER TO MY CHILDREN IN SCHOOL

Love,