

Industry Client Comments

“We have received nothing but raves from our members who attended your session. Your ability to capture the attention of the audience was remarkable.

The presentation was informative, well paced, and most importantly, fun!”

Charlie Roe, Director of Education
Northwest Public Power Association

“We wanted to express our sincere thanks for an extraordinary presentation at our Spring Marketing Divisional Meeting. The economic information you shared with us was extremely valuable, and your presentation style made the subject matter more interesting, fun, and entertaining for our audience.”

Caleb Harkness, Manager, Marketing Communications and Planning
Delta Air Lines

“I want to sincerely thank you for your excellent presentation given at The Powder Coating Institute Annual Meeting in San Antonio. Your economic outlook was both educational and entertaining. I also thank you for taking the time to meet with members both before and after your presentation. You were great to work with, a true professional in every sense of the word!”

Gregory J. Bocchi, Executive Director
The Powder Coating Institute

“We thoroughly enjoyed having you as our featured speaker at the recent Annual Meeting of the Pine Chemicals Association in Key Largo, FL. Your comments on current and future economic conditions were informative, thought provoking, and humorous. We received excellent feedback from those attending the conference. You helped to make the program a ‘no hassle event’.”

Walter L. Jones, President & COO
Pine Chemicals Association

“You were great! And, yes, economics can be ‘entertaining and humorous.’ Early feedback shows that yours may have been one of the best overall sessions we have ever had. It’s tough being the ‘last act’ on a Saturday morning, but I didn’t see a single participant leave after the break. Kudos to you for a job well done.”

M. Lance Miller, CAE, EVP
Metal Treating Institute

Entertaining
