

Education and Public Sector Client Comments

“Thank you for your excellent presentation at the Federal Women’s Program recognizing the contributions of women in federal service. Attendees rated the class as superior and requested it to be scheduled again at future events. Economics can be viewed as a dry and intimidating subject, but you made it enjoyable.”

Debra F. Schwartz, Federal Women’s Program Manager
Department of the Air Force

Entertaining and Economist
in the same sentence?
YES!!

“Last night I attended the first of nine Back-To-School Nights. One of our rookie principals stepped to the microphone and spoke the words of Jeff Thredgold. If you hadn’t come to us and shared your powerful and exact information and economic data, this young principal would not have had the knowledge, nor the words, to move those parents. You spoke directly to all 450 people, and each heard you loud and clear.”

Rebecca J. Presley, Superintendent
Hanford (CA) Elementary School District

“The lecture you gave in our Nye Lecture Series was absolutely outstanding. You might be interested in some of the comments I received... ‘Jeff Thredgold was the most interesting and the most worthwhile...’ ‘Jeff Thredgold was one of the best we have had.’”

Dr. Michael B. Vaughan
Dean of Business School
Weber State University (Utah)

“Thank you for your presentation at our annual meeting. The evaluations on your presentation were far and away the best. In fact, over the last dozen years I do not recall a speaker with a higher rating.”

Jim Melland, President Economic Development Association
of North Dakota

“Thank you for your entertaining presentation at our Annual Economic Forecast Luncheon. This luncheon was not only our most successful event with nearly 1,000 people registered, but it was also the first luncheon that we received as much positive feedback that our economic forecast was entertaining and informative.”

Larry Crawford, President & CEO
Anchorage Economic Development Corporation