Dear Jeff:

We received fantastic response from your presentation last week at our Simmons Media hosted Client Event. You held the attention of our 200+ group and really provided us with a forum to discuss some “meaty” issues with our customers.

Thank you for your outstanding preparation and presentation. It exceeded our expectations in every way.

We believe that our association with you has added tremendous credibility to our Company and its mission.

We are celebrating positive feedback from this special event and thank you again Jeff for being the “Headliner” for us.

We are newly minted Thredgold “disciples” for good reason.

We can certainly see why you have earned such an outstanding reputation in your field.

Gratefully,
